CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

THE LAST HOPE. There is no more insidious pleasure than a visit to the gaming-table at such places as Monte Carlo. "The luck will turn" is the cry of the gambler, and unhesitatingly he stakes his money on the movements of the wheel and ball. But alas for him, too often the unrelenting rake of the croupier hauls it from his sight and, like the specimen in the picture, he is reduced to his last coin-which too frequently follows its predecessors.
